

al-Qur'aan: Hab-lullaah al-Mamdood
'The Qur'aan: Allaah's Outstretched Rope'
Shaykh Abdur Razzaq ibn Abdul Muhsin al-Badr
[HafidhahumAllaah]

Questionnaire-Study Guide: Lecture No. 1

1. a. Title of the Book (in Arabic or English):

b. Name of the author (Mu'allif) and something brief about his education, his teachers, writings and occupation.
2. Memorize a Hadeeth which proves that the Qur'aan is Hab-lullaah (the Rope of Allaah).
3. Mention the benefit of Ittibaa' (following of) the Book of Allaah. [Hadeeth of Zaid ibn Arqam (رضي الله عنه) Muslim]
4. Mention the benefit of Tamassuk (holding fast) to the Book of Allaah, [Hadeeth of Abu Shuraih (رضي الله عنه) Ibn Abi Shaybah]
5. Mention five (5) matters - listed by the author - for which the Qur'aan was sent down.
6. Mention four (4) areas of our lives in which the Qur'aan is intended to be taken as our Manhaj (methodology).
7. Memorize the Hadeeth of Aa'ishah (رضي الله عنها) in which she describes the character of the Prophet (ﷺ). [Ahmad]
8. Discuss the reason why Allaah has named the Qur'aan a 'Rooh'.
9. Where else has Allaah used this expression 'Rooh' in the Qur'aan, referring to other than the Qur'aan? Why?