

After Completing Prayer (Salāh)

اللَّهُمَّ أَعِنِّي عَلَى ذِكْرِكَ وَشُكْرِكَ وَحُسْنِ عِبَادَتِكَ

Allāhum-ma a-'in-nee 'a-lā dhik-ri-ka wa shuk-ri-ka wa hus-ni 'E-bā-da-tik

O Allāh! Help me to remember You, and to be thankful to You, and to worship You in the best manner.<sup>1</sup>

The text of the Hadeeth:

On the authority of Mu'ādh Bin Jabal (may Allāh be pleased with him): That the Messenger of Allāh (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) took him by his hand one day and said: O Mu'ādh! By Allāh! Indeed I love you, and I advise you, O Mu'ādh, never leave off saying these words at the end of every prayer: 'O Allāh! Help me to remember You, and to be thankful to You, and to worship You in the best manner.'<sup>2</sup>

Shaykh Abdur-Razzāq Bin Abdul-Muhsin Al-'Abbād (may Allāh preserve both him and his father) [after placing this supplication under the title of what is said after the completion of the Salāh] says: "The scholars of Islām have two views concerning whether this supplication is recited before or after the Tasleem (i.e. saying: 'As-Salāmu 'Alaikum wa Raḥmatul-lāh...'). Shaykh-ul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah is of those who hold the view that it is said before Tasleem. And Allāh knows best."

Explanation of the Hadeeth:

The saying of the Prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam): "A-'in-nee" means: seeking Allāh's 'Awn (help) or Is-ti-'ā-nah, like in Al-Fātiḥah (1:5), "...Wa Iy-yāka nas-ta-'een" (...and You Alone we ask for help). Indeed, there is no success without help from Allāh!

His saying (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam): "'A-lā dhik-ri-ka" (to remember You): Comprises all types of Thanā (praise, glorification), including recitation of Qur'ān and occupying oneself with Islamic knowledge by studying and teaching.

The reason why Dhikr (remembrance) is mentioned before Shukr (thankfulness, gratitude) is because a person will not be thankful if he does not first remember the One who deserves to be thanked.

<sup>2</sup> Sunan Abi Dāwood, no. 1522 and Sunan an-Nasā'ee, no. 1303. Al-Albānee said that it is authentic (Saḥeeḥ) in Saḥeeḥ Abi Dāwood, no. 1347.

In this same way Dhikr (remembrance) is mentioned before Shukr (thankfulness, gratitude) in the saying of Allāh, the Most High:

فَاذْكُرُونِي أَذْكُرْكُمْ وَاشْكُرُوا لِي وَلَا تَكْفُرُونِ ﴿١٥٢﴾

Therefore remember Me (by praying and glorifying); I will remember you. And be thankful to Me (for My countless favors on you) and never be ungrateful (to Me). (2:152)

His saying (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam): "Wa shuk-ri-ka" (And to be thankful to You): Ash-Shukr (gratitude, thankfulness) is by means of the heart by acknowledging and confessing to the favors and bounties of Allāh; then by means of the tongue by mentioning the favors of Allāh and praising Him for them; then by means of the limbs of the body by obedience to Allāh, compliance with His commands and avoiding His prohibitions.

By being thankful and grateful, the blessings and favors of Allāh, which one presently enjoys, will remain; and those which one does not have, may be added as an increase to what he already has. Allāh, the Most High, said:

وَإِذْ تَأَذَّنَ رَبُّكُمْ لَئِن شَكَرْتُمْ لَأَزِيدَنَّكُمْ

ط وَلَئِن كَفَرْتُمْ إِنَّ عَذَابِي لَشَدِيدٌ ﴿٧﴾

And (remember) when your Lord proclaimed: If you are thankful (by accepting faith and worshipping Allāh, Alone), I will give you more (of My blessings); but if you are ungrateful; verily, My punishment is indeed severe. (14:7)

His saying (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam): "Wa hus-ni 'E-bā-da-ti-k" (and to worship You in the best manner): Here the worship is qualified by the word 'Hus-ni' (i.e., that it be done in the best manner) since only the worship which is performed in its best manner will be considered as 'E-bā-dah khā-li-ḡah' (i.e., worship done sincerely for Allāh, Alone). And if any worship is not done sincerely for the sake of Allāh, Alone - as well as in accordance with the Sunnah of the Prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) - then it will not be accepted by Allāh, nor will it benefit the one who performs it.
